

Data improves program implementation and answers questions like, “How is the intervention working?” It informs critical decision-making and clarifies instincts. Often funders ask for data to understand program impact. As a part of ongoing quality assurance, ParentChild+ strongly suggests that sites run a DAISY report every 30 days to ensure data is entered.

MOST IMPORTANTLY: We know some of these forms/assessments and steps did not happen this year, please just enter any information you have, so we can tell the story of the work this year.

CCIS has recently been setup in DAISY, so you can input directly there if you completed it. Sites were not required to complete CIS/CCIS during COVID. If you do not have assessments to enter, you should still complete the Program Completion survey.

Some sites are still using FCCERS instead of CCIS due to funding requirements.
