

ParentChild+

Equal Possibilities From The Start

WINDOWS, MIRRORS, AND DOORS: First Nations Representation in Children's Books

Post-Event Resources

Links to Books, Podcasts and Resources by our Moderator and Speakers:

- Fry Bread by Kevin Maillard (ages 3-6)
- Gene Tagaban, Storytelling Raven
- Girls Dance, Boys Fiddle by Carole Lindstrom (ages 6-8)
- Storykeepers podcast by Jennifer David and Waubgeshig Rice
- We Are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom (ages 3-6)

ParentChild+ Resources:

- Anti-Bias Checklist
- Book Content Analysis

Additional Books and Resources:

- A Day with Yayah by Nicola I. Campbell (ages 3-8)
- Awâsis and the World-Famous Bannock by Dallas Hunt and illustrated by Amanda Strong
- Baby Raven Alphabet Chart
- Baby Raven Reads – Collection of children's books
- Birchbark Books & Indigenous Arts
- Good Minds – First Nations online bookstore
- Illuminative
- Indian No More by Charlene Willing McManis and Traci Sorell – a book about Indian termination and relocation (ages 8-12)
- Line and Symmetry Lesson – Navajo rug design
- Little You by Richard Van Camp (ages 0-2)
- Native Land Map
- Owls See Clearly at Night by Julie Fleet (all ages)
- Sealaska Heritage – Perpetuating and Enhancing Native Cultures
- Supporting Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Home Visiting – on-demand training session
- Sweetest Kulu by Celina Kalluk
- The Girl Who Loved Wild Horses by Paul Goble (ages 5-8)